

Herbal Medicine Conference 2026 – Terms & Conditions

Organiser: National Institute of Medical Herbalists ("the Organiser", "we", "our" or "us")

These Terms & Conditions apply to all bookings for the Herbal Medicine Conference 2026 ("the Conference"). By purchasing a ticket, you agree to be bound by these Terms & Conditions.

1. Conference Details

Conference Dates: Friday 20 November 2026 and Saturday 21 November 2026

Venue: St Martin's House, Leicester, United Kingdom

The Conference will also be available via an online digital platform.

2. Ticket Types

Available ticket types include:

- In-Person Delegate Pass
- Online Remote Access Pass
- Student Delegate Pass (where available)
- Member and Affiliated Organisation Discounted Passes (where applicable)

Each ticket includes only the benefits described at the time of purchase.

3. Booking

Bookings are confirmed once payment has been received in full.

Tickets are personal to the named attendee and may not be shared.

The Organiser reserves the right to refuse or cancel bookings where incorrect pricing, eligibility or fraudulent activity is identified.

4. Member and Student Discounts

Discounted rates are available only to eligible attendees.

The Organiser reserves the right to request evidence of eligibility before or after booking.

If a discounted ticket has been purchased without meeting the eligibility requirements, the Organiser may require payment of the difference in price or cancel the booking.

5. Payment

All prices are displayed in Pounds Sterling (£).

Payment must be made in full at the time of booking unless otherwise agreed.

6. Cancellations by Attendees

Unless otherwise stated:

- All tickets are non refundable
 - Tickets may be transferred to another person up to seven days before the Conference, subject to written notification and approval by the Organiser.
 - Failure to attend does not entitle the attendee to a refund.

7. Cancellation or Changes by the Organiser

The Organiser reserves the right to:

- amend the programme;
- substitute speakers;
- alter session timings;
- change the venue within the local area;
- move all or part of the Conference online where reasonably necessary.

If the Conference is cancelled and not rescheduled, attendees will receive a refund of the ticket price paid.

The Organiser is not responsible for travel, accommodation or other costs incurred by attendees.

8. Speakers and Programme

All advertised speakers are correct at the time of publication.

Circumstances beyond our control may require changes to speakers or programme content.

Such changes do not constitute grounds for cancellation or refund.

9. Online Attendance

Online delegates are responsible for ensuring they have:

- a suitable internet connection;
- compatible hardware and software;
- access to the digital platform.

The Organiser cannot guarantee uninterrupted streaming where interruptions are outside its reasonable control.

10. On-Demand Access

Where included, on-demand recordings will normally be available for up to 12 months after the Conference.

Access is granted to the registered attendee only.

Sharing login details or recordings is prohibited.

The Organiser reserves the right to withdraw access where copyright or licensing restrictions apply.

11. Recording and Intellectual Property

Conference presentations, slides, recordings and materials remain the intellectual property of the respective speakers or the Organiser unless otherwise stated.

Attendees may not:

- record sessions;
 - livestream presentations;
 - reproduce conference materials;
 - distribute presentation slides without permission.

12. Photography and Filming

The Conference may be photographed or recorded for educational and promotional purposes.

By attending, delegates acknowledge that they may appear in photographs or video recordings.

Anyone who does not wish to appear should notify the registration desk upon arrival.

13. Delegate Conduct

The Organiser is committed to providing a professional, respectful and inclusive environment.

Attendees must not:

- harass speakers, exhibitors or delegates;
- behave aggressively;
- disrupt sessions;
- damage venue property;
- engage in discriminatory or abusive behaviour.

The Organiser reserves the right to remove any attendee without refund where behaviour is considered unacceptable.

14. Accessibility

The Organiser aims to make the Conference as accessible as reasonably possible.

Attendees requiring reasonable adjustments should contact the Organiser as early as possible before the Conference.

15. Dietary Requirements

Reasonable efforts will be made to accommodate dietary requirements notified in advance.

The Organiser cannot guarantee that food provided will be free from allergens.

Delegates with severe allergies attend at their own discretion.

16. Liability

Nothing in these Terms & Conditions excludes liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, fraud or any liability that cannot legally be excluded.

Subject to the above, the Organiser's total liability arising from attendance at the Conference shall not exceed the amount paid for the relevant ticket.

The Organiser is not responsible for:

- loss or theft of personal belongings;
 - travel disruption;
 - accommodation costs;
 - indirect or consequential losses.

17. Force Majeure

The Organiser shall not be liable for failure to perform its obligations where caused by events beyond its reasonable control, including but not limited to:

- severe weather;
- natural disasters;
- fire;
- industrial action;
- government restrictions;
- public health emergencies;
- terrorism;
- failure of utilities or communications.

Where reasonably possible, the Organiser will seek to reschedule the Conference or provide alternative arrangements.

18. Data Protection

Personal information will be processed in accordance with applicable UK data protection legislation and the Organiser's Privacy Policy.

Delegate information will only be used for administering the Conference unless consent has been given for other purposes.

19. Governing Law

These Terms & Conditions are governed by the laws of England and Wales.

Any disputes shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
