

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

When is the conference?

The Herbal Medicine Conference 2026 takes place on Friday 20 and Saturday 21 November 2026.

Where is the conference being held?

The in-person event will be held at St Martin's House, Leicester, UK. If you are unable to attend in person, you can join via our live online conference platform.

Can I attend online?

Yes. Our Online Remote Access Pass includes:

- Live streaming of keynote presentations and workshops
- Interactive Q&A sessions
- Full on-demand access to all conference recordings for 12 months
- You will receive a link to the online conference in your ticket confirmation email

What is included with an in-person ticket?

Your In-Person Delegate Pass includes:

- Access to both conference days

- Networking opportunities
- Lunch and refreshments on both days
- 12 months' on-demand access to all conference recordings

Will recordings be available after the conference?

Yes. All delegates, both in-person and online, will receive 12 months of on-demand access to every recorded session.

Is lunch provided?

Yes. A sandwich lunch will be provided each day, along with tea, coffee and refreshments throughout the conference.

Can dietary requirements and food allergies be accommodated?

Yes. The venue can accommodate for any food requirements

Is parking available at the venue?

No. There is no parking available at St Martin's House. We recommend travelling by public transport where possible or using one of Leicester city centre's public car parks.

How do I get to St Martin's House?

St Martin's House is located in the centre of Leicester and is easily accessible by public transport.

- By Train: Leicester Railway Station is approximately a 15-minute walk from the venue, with frequent services from London, Birmingham, Sheffield and Nottingham.
- By Bus: Numerous local and regional bus services stop within a short walk of the venue.
- By Taxi: Taxis are readily available from Leicester Railway Station and throughout the city centre.

We recommend checking your preferred travel provider before your journey.

Are there hotels nearby?

The conference does not arrange accommodation. However, there are many hotels within walking distance of the venue, including a range of budget and premium options in Leicester city centre. Early booking is recommended, particularly if attending both conference days.

Who should attend?

The conference is suitable for:

- Medical herbalists
- Herbal medicine students
- Integrative and complementary healthcare practitioners
- Healthcare professionals with an interest in gastrointestinal health
- Researchers and academics
- Anyone wishing to deepen their understanding of herbal approaches to gut health

Are discounted tickets available?

Yes. Reduced-price tickets are available for:

- Institute Members
- Members of affiliated professional bodies
- Student herbalists

Please select the appropriate ticket option when registering.

Will there be opportunities to ask questions?

Yes. Delegates attending both in person and online will have opportunities to participate in Q&A sessions with our speakers.

Can I attend for just one day?

Please refer to the available ticket options during registration. If single-day tickets become available, they will be listed on the booking page.

How do I book my place?

Simply select your preferred ticket option and complete the online booking process. As in-person places are limited, we recommend booking early to avoid disappointment.
